SUFFS IN PLEA TO ADAMSON. Newly Wed Congressman Is Asked to Ald Amendment. A committee of women from the Con-B. Anthony amendment and try to get it adopted during the present session. They told him that as he was so very successful in putting through the eight hour legislation they were sure he could enfranchise the women of the country if he would.

The Congressman, who has been lately married, was accompanied by his bride, and she did the honors of the occasion, introducing the suffragists to him. He was extremely polite, assuring them woman, lovely woman, should have no trouble in settling the yote or anything trouble in getting the vote or anything the she wanted. These gallantries did not appear to satisfy the petitioners, some of whom, including Mrs. John Rogers, Jr., and Miss Anna Constable

URGES NEW AMERICAN IDEALS.

Edwin Markham Asks Quickening of Spirit in Schools.

"We must quicken the imagination of our children in the public schools and give them a vision of America and what she stands for if the country is to be preserved for the future," said Edwin Markhams the poet, at the weekly non. preserved for the future," said Edwin Markhams the poet, at the weekly nonpartisan luncheon yesterday in the Republican Club in West Fortieth street.

The subject of yesterday's discussion was "Is Modern Life Crowding Out American Highest Ideals in Literature and Art?" Besides Mr. Markham the speakers were Robert Underwood Johnson, George DeForest Brush, Prof. Alfred F. Wilson, Mrs. Rheta Childe Dorr.
George B. Luks, Miss Emilie Frances
Bauer and Kenneth C. Beaton.
